Terms and Conditions:

I hereby understand that I will clean my vendor space once the event is complete. Any personal or professional materials left behind shall be disposed of after the event. West Point and any affiliated entities are not held responsible for any items lost or stolen during the event. All vendors requiring access to West Point shall remit their information to FMWR Marketing via email no later than seven (7) days before the event in order to ensure base access. This includes full name, gender, date of birth and driver's license or ID number. Failure to remit this information shall result in full inspection and back ground check upon arrival at the West Point Visitor Center. Access is at the discretion of USAG West Point security.
